

NOTHING MEAN ABOUT HIM.

French Prince Wants an American Wife with $2,000,000.

NEW YORK, November 8. — Albert S. Warner, a lawyer of 277 Broadway, recently received a letter from Rev. J. Berger, who says that he is the pastor of a church in the town of Leopold, Ind., and that he is acting as agent for a French prince. A translation of the letter, which is in French, is as follows:

"If you undertake marriages, I will make you the following proposition: A young French prince, a friend of mine, desires to contract an American marriage with a desirable young person worth at least $2,000,000. Do you wish to undertake to find such a person? After the marriage you will receive $10,000, and if you succeed in finding such a person before December 1st you shall receive an extra reward of $5000.

"The young prince in question belongs to one of the most illustrious French families, the title dating from the time of the Crusades. He is 29 years old. He is a very pronounced Catholic. He desires that the young lady should also be a Catholic, but nevertheless the question of religion will not stand in the way. If you will attend to this affair please let me know at once. If not, will you kindly tell me of some concern which will undertake it."

The Western clergyman evidently means business, and Mr. Warner informed him to-day that he would undertake the contract and would at once canvass the entire country for marriageable young ladies under the $2,000,000 clause.

MRS. WILLIAM FOSTER DEAD.
Sad Event Happens at San Francisco — The Body Cremated.

Mrs. Mary Winter Foster died at the Colonial Hotel, San Francisco, at 6:45 a. m. Tuesday, Nov. 5. She was wife of William Foster, lately Police Judge of Honolulu; daughter of the late John S. and Mary M. Winter; sister of Mrs. E. R. Hendry of Honolulu. Miss Alice Winter of Honokaa, Mrs. Albert Horner of Kakaia, John W. Winter of Honolulu, and Frank L. Winter of Wainaku. Mrs. Foster was about 41 years old. She came to Honolulu in the fall of 1884 from her home in Galesburg, Illinois, and was a teacher in the Fort street School. She was married on August 4, 1885. Mrs. Foster left Honolulu in February, 1895, for her health, and lived in San Francisco till her death, which was caused by a severe bronchial trouble that attacked her in September, causing failure of lungs and heart. The funeral was held at Trinity Chapel, Gough street, near Bush, San Francisco, at 11 a. m. on Thursday, Nov. 7. Rev. Geo. Wallace, formerly of Honolulu, conducted the service. Pall bearers were W. J. Martin, J. A. Morrow, W. C. Parke, C. W. Ashford, F. G. Skaife and William Morris. In accordance with her wishes, she was cremated at the Odd Fellows' Cemetery in San Francisco.

Tom—I feel just like having a good time; can't we celebrate something?

Kitty—Why, yes; today would have been the anniversary of our wedding, if we had been married just a year ago. Let's celebrate that.—Town Topics.

A Scotchman once neatly turned the tables on an Englishman who had been alluding to the number of Scots in London. "Well," replied the Scot, "I know a place in Scotland where there are 30,000 Englishmen who never go back to their own country." "Why, wherever can such a crowd be?" said the Englishman, to whom the Scot dryly remarked, "At Bannockburn."—Argonaut.

It is generally acknowledged that the EVENING BULLETIN is the best local paper in Hawaii. It naturally follows that it must be the best advertising medium.
